the Journal and Press, and the party they are striving to get up.

To the question why drag this issue into at election for mere local officers, the Union Press says, with great innocence, simply because you caunot help it. The faithful can't help agitating. We have no objection to their doing their best; but don't tet them make langhable excuses and apologies, and undertake to complain of other people, as if they was about the marriage of slaves, there is no such a same inspected and mark-take are turn of the same as inspected to the provisions of this act, and shall make a return of the same as inspected to the sasistant assessor of the district, and, unless removed to a borded warebouse, chall ing peace.

The Journal's new-horn zeal is ridiculous enough. A few years ago we exhorted the propie of Kentucky to let slavery in the Territories alone, and warned them of the dangers of this agitation to force slavery where people didn't want it. Then the editors of the Journal and most of its present progressive friends nade mouths at us se an Abolliionist. Nothing would do them but that Corgress should protect slavery in every Territory against the wishes of the people. On this point the Louis-AM ALWAYS READY TO PAY THE HIGHEST wille Journal was very spaemodic and terrible. It was a great constitutional right of the South to take slaves into every Territory. Any other ectrine was a short cut to Abolitionism.

This very issue, so zealously urged by the Journsi, divided North and South irreconcilahiy. Now the editor of the Journal is not only for abolishing slavery in this State, but hs is for forcing an smeadment of the Constlexcluded by the people of a Territory, or Congress either, and now he wants it prohibited in States in splte of the people.

But he is controlled by events. He has be-poncy as the Abelitionists or the Republicans, he need not be scared at the name; sind that is precisely his condition, and the condition of his friend, Mr. Yeaman. They belong to the dominant parly, and see now through that party's spectacles. They are as short-sighted now as they were when we had to warn them repeatedly that, in urging their asinire slavery will muitiply, take care of themselves.

But he is controlled by events. He has become immensely practical. Certainly, it it is all fixed and settled, there is no cocasion of my burry about it. Kentucky is not suitering for want of emancipation. If her Constitution and laws do not protect slavery, what other property do they protect! Let us aboliah money and preperty, for they are not ary more secure than servants. The rebels take both at discretion, and the Government take them from military necessity.

Kentucky suffers from this demoralization, this want of protection to person and property, and no emancipation will help the cause.

PEFF DAVIS' MESSAGE TO THE REBEL CONGRESS From the Richmond Enquirer, March 15. The following message was transmitted to Cougress on Monday:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Confederate States of America; When informed on Thursday last that it was the intention of Congress to adjourn sine die ou the ensuing Saturday, I deemed it my duty to request spostponement of the adjournment, in order that I might submit for your consideration certain matters of public interest which are now laid before you. When that request was made the most important measures that had occupied your attention during the session had not been so far advanced as to be submitted for executive action, and the state of the country had been so materials. state of the country had been so materially affected by the events of the last four months as to evince the necessity of further and more energetic legislation than was contemplated in November last.

One country is now environed with perils which it is our duty calmiy to contemplate. Thus alone can the measures necessary to avert threatened calamities be wisely devised and efficiently enforced. THE DANGER OF THE REBEL CAPITAL. Recent military operations of the enemy of our seaports, and in devastating large districts of our country. These events have had the natural effect of encouraging our foce and dispiriting many of our people. The capital of the Confederate States is now threatened, and it is in greater danger than it has heretofore been during the war. The fact is stated with-out reserve or concealment, as due to the peo-ple, whose servants we are, and in whose conrage and constancy entire trust is reposed; as due to you, in whose wisdom and resciute spirit the people have confided for the adop-tion of the messures required to guard them from threatened perils. THE ONLY WAY TO SAVE THE CONFEDERACY

While stating to you that our country is in danger, I slad desire to state my deliberate conviction that it is within our power to svert the calamities which menace us, sud to secure the triumph of the sacred cause for which so much sacrifice has been made, so much anffercourage, by constancy in enduring the sacrifices still needed; in a word, by the prompi and resolute devotion of the whole resources of men and money in the Confederacy to the achievement of our liberties and independence. The measures now required to be successful abould be prompt. Long deliberation and protracted debate over important measures are not only natural hut laudable in representative assemblies under ordinary circumstances: but in moments of danger, when action becomes urgent, the delay thus caused is itself a new source of peril. Thus it has unfortunately happened that some of the measures passed by you in pursuance of the recommendation contained in my message of Nevember last, have been so retarded as to loss much of their value, or have, for the same reason, been shandoned after being matured, because no longer applicable to our sitered condition and others have not been brought under ex-amination. In making these remarks it is far from my intention to attribute the loss of time to any other cause than those inherent in deliberative assemblies, but only urgently to recommend prompt action on the measures We need, for carrying ou the war successfully, men and supplies for the army. We have both within our country sufficient to attect productive districts, guard onr lines of communications by an increase in the number of our forces, and hence it recults that with large augmentations in the number of men in the army, the facility of enpplying the troops would be greater than with our recent reduced strength. NECESSITY OF FILLING THE TREASURY.

For the purchase of supplies new required, specially for the armies in Virginia and North Ample provision existing in those parts of the Confederacy with which our communication has been partially interrupted by hostile operations. But in some districts from which supplies are to be drawn, the lehabitants, being either within the enemy's lines or in very close proximity, are unable to make use of Confederate treasury notes for the purchase of articles of prime necessity, and it is necessay that, to some extent, coin be paid in order to obtain supplies. It is therefore recommended that Congress devise the means of making available the coin within the Confederacy, for the purpose of supplying the army. The officers of the supply departments report for the supply departments report that it could not be done.

The measure most needed, however, at the resent time, for affording an effective increase present time, for affording an effective increase in our military etrength, is a general militia law, such as the Constitution anthorizes Congress to pass, by granting it power "to previde for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the Confederate States," and the further power "to provide for calling forth the militia to execution and present may be more energetically and vigorously it may be executed, the States, snappress insurrections and repet inva-sions." The necessity for the exercise of this power can never exist if not in the circum-scances which now surround us. The security of the States against any encroachment by the Confederate Government is amply provided by the Constitution by reserving to the States by the Coratitution, by reserving to the States respectively the appointment of the officers, and the authority of training the militia, ac-cording to the discipline prescribed by Con-

A law is needed to prescribe not only how and of what persons the militia are to be organized, but to previde the mode of calling them out. If instances be required to show the necessity for such a general law, it is sufficient to mention that in one case I have been informed by the Governor of a State that the law does not permit them to call out the militia interest. A law is needed to prescribe not only how and of what persons the militia are to be organized, hut to previde the mode of calling them out. If instances be required to show the necessity for such a general law, it is sufficient to mention that in one case I have heen informed by the Governor of a State that the law does not permit him to call out the militiar from one county to serve in another, so that a single brigade of the enemy could traverse the State, and devsetate each county in turn without any power on the nart of the Executive to use the military for effective defense; while in an All adult "secesh" who make their appear—

With the prompt adoption of the measures shove recommended, and the united and hearty cooperation of Congress and the people in the execution of the laws and the defense of the country, we may enter on the coming campaign with cheerfu confidence in the result. And who can doub the continued existence of that spirit and for-tliude of the people, and of that constancy under reverses, which slone are needed to render our trimmph secure? What other resources remain available but the undying, uncommerable resolve to be free? It has become certain beyond all doubt or question that we must continue this struggle to a suc-cessful issue, or must make abject and uncon-ditional submission to such terms as it shall lease the conqueror to impose upon us after ur surreuder. It a possible doubt could exist after the conference between our commis-sioners and Mr. Lincoln, as recently reported to you, it would be dispelled by a recent oc-rrence, of which it is proper you should he Congress will remember that in the conference above referred to our commissioners were informed that the Government of the United States would not enter luto an agreement or treaty whatever with the Coufederate S'ates, nor with any single State; and the only possible mode of obtaining peace was by laying down our arms, disbanding our forces and yielding unconditional obedienes to the laws of the United Sistes, including those passed for the confiscation of our property, and the Constitutional Amendment for the abolition of slavery. It will further be remembered that Mr. Lincoln declared that the only terms on which hostilities could class were those stated in his message of December last, in which we were informed that in the event of our peni- Johnston and Bragg at Goldsb tent submission he would temper justics with mercy, and that the question whether we would be governed as dependent territories or permitted to have a representation in Congress was one on which he could premise nothing, but which would be decided by their

NEW ADVERTISE'TS.

UNDERTAKERS At the old stand, southeast corner Jefferse

and Third Streets. HAVING THOROUGHLY CHANGED THE OLD se and fitted it up for our business in a style heretofore unknown in this city, we will devote our time exclusively to the burial of the dead, for which purpose we will keep constantly on hand a large assort ment of I, C. SHULER & CO.'S Justly celebrated Air-tight Galvanized Wrought Iro Caskets and Cases, which, for lightness, durability, style and finish, surpass anything before offered to the public We also keep on hand CRANE, BREED & CO.'s and W. M. RAYMOND & CO.'S Metalic Burial Caskets and Cases, Also, a large assortment of Wooden Coffins and Coffin Mountings. All calls attended to promptly night on. The senior partner of this house has the exclusive agency for the sale of I. C. SHULER & CO.'S Conkets and Cases in the Eastern division of Kentucky three or four counties where they are now sold), and is prepared to furnish Undertakers with them, by calling at onr office, corner of Third and Jefferson streets. General Orders No. 4:

Reliable evidence has resched these headquarters that emissivities of the rebel government are engaged by recruiting for their exhausted armies in the State of Kentucky. Appearance of the state of the sta cals are again made to the young men o' he due to disregard their duty and risk their riess and honor in a wicked and desperate mee, while men who have deserted the reb nce, and are now peaceably at their somes, are a quired to r july their commands, can encounter the pertis of treason under the threatened penalty of betrayal to the Fedsnibo ities, who they are taught to be will treat them as outlaws and guerrillas To counteract these efforts to mislead the men who have, in good faith, deserted the reball describers from the rebel service, all describes from the rebel coss from date report themselves to y relide for registry And all persons who sy hereaf er c sert from the rebel armies, so come in o this department, will, within re d 50 after their arrival, report themselves the same purpose.

Prevest Macchale will received the report of of preoper treeting the meetres under this will be sold at much less that erder, will egis or the names, age, resi or, and the par joular military organiza from which they have deserted. sgistry will be regarded by the military au-horities of this department as a distinct re-nuclation of all 'urther connection with the bel government, and as entitling the regisered person, who may demess himself as a rescentle citizen, to military protection. Persons who refuse to present themselves r registry, as required by this order, will be understood as subering to the rebel govern-meet, and, if captured, will be treated as spice, recruitle, or otherwise, according to the cir-cumstances of the case. dtMr224: w LOUISVILLE, KY., March 16.b, 1865. General Orders No. 12;

The following named officers are hereby announced upon the staff of the Major General Capt. E. B. Harlan, U. S. V , Assistant Ad-Capt. S. B Folsom, 101st Ill. Infantry, Pro-

Vo-t Marchal. Capt. Henry Howland, A. Q. M., Chief Qua termaster. Lieut. L. S. Babbitt, Ordnance Corps, Chief of Ordnarce.
They will be obeyed and respected accord-

gly. By command of Major General Palmer.
J. P. Watson, Capl. and A. A. A. G. mrls. 66 wl. To the Citizens of Louisville.

The committee appointed by the General bure'l to sitend to the disbursement of the unty fund be leave to call the attention of the clinzes to the following facts: The fund, $200,000,appropriated by the city, only sufficient to pay bounty to 663 2-8 men. The amount to this date contributed by the $25 subscribers to the bounty fund is $30,200, which will only pay bounties to 140 men. Thus, the two funds combined will pay for but 797 men. There have been already enlisted to the credit of the city 442 men, and there are now 450 men more who offer to callet. When they shall be evilused, it with make the number credited to Louisylite 892 men, which is 95 men more an the wo funce (as at present) combined can the worther (as at present) combined will pay. Besides, even if this number of 892 nen should be paid, there would still be a seficiency of 366 men; and unless this deficiency is made up the draft will be ordered. In ddition to the 450 men, now about to be enseted, others can be procured; they are daily faring and there will be no difficulty in propring enough and pare they are nonether the state. aring enough and more than enough men to Ill the city's quota and avoid the draft.
Let the citizens, therefore, come forward at more and subscribe to the fund, so that we may not have to turn away the volunteers for want of funds to pay the bounty. This we must do, unless the chizans promptly come forward to morrow; for, as before observed, re have already more men engaged than the fund will now pay. Let every citizen take an interest in the matter, and not be attisfied alone with subscribing, but let him urge others to come forward and subscribe, and not cease his work till enough money is raised to pay off the city's quota.
